CONTENTS.

CHAP. I.

PAGE.

Opening of the Session of Parliament. Debates on the Address, and on the Treaties concluded with Foreign Powers in 1815. Motion for the production of the "Christian Treaty." Financial Exposition by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, 3

CHAP. II.

Debates on the Army Estimates. Petitions against the Property-Tax. Vote against its continuance. The War Malt Tax is abandoned by the Minister. The Budget, 24

CHAP. III.

Bill for the Regulation of the Civil List. Motion for abolishing the Office of one of the Secretaries of State. Motion respecting the Augmentation of the Salaries of the Secretaries of the Admiralty. Motion concerning Salaries and Emoluments in Public Offices. Mr Grenfell's Motion concerning the Transactions with the Bank. Bank Restriction Act extended till 1818. Consolidation of the English and Irish Exchequers. New Silver Coinage, - - - - 34

CHAP. IV.

Sir John Newport's Motion on the State of Ireland. Various Proceedings of Parliament connected with the Question of Catholic Emancipation, - - 41

CHAP. V.

Report of the Committees on the Mendicity and Vagrancy, and on the Police of the Metropolis. State of Manners as illustrated in the Evidence led before these Committees, - - - - - - - - - 57

CHAP. VI.

Committee and Debates on the Purchase of the Elgin Marbles. Vote of a Monument in Memory of the Battle of Trafalgar, - - - - 65

CHAP. VII.

PAGE.

Distresses of the Country. Debates on this Subject in the House of Commons. Change produced in the Public Feeling by Reason of the Bad Harvest. Riots in the Counties of Suffolk, Cambridge, and Stafford. Meetings at Spafields, and Disturbances in the Metropolis. Orator Hunt. Marriages of the Princess Charlotte of Wales and Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg Saalfield, and of the Princess Mary and the Duke of Gloucester. Death of Mr Sheridan, - - 70

CHAP. VIII.

Causes of the British Expedition to Algiers. Nature of the Barbary Governments, and of the Piratical Expeditions which they authorise. Sir Sidney Smith's Proposal to the Congress of Vienna. Negociations of Sir Thomas Maitland and Lord Exmouth in the early part of this year. Massacre of Bona. Expedition under Lord Exmouth and Admiral Van de Capellen. Bombardment of Algiers. Terms of the Treaty with the Dey. Reflections, - - - - - - 81

CHAP. IX.

State of Affairs in France at the Meeting of the Chambers. Interesting Nature of the Discussions commenced in these Assemblies. Bill for the Suspension of the Law securing Personal Liberty. Debate on this Occasion. Some Remarks on the Manner of Procedure in the French Chambers, as contrasted with that of our Parliament. Bill respecting the Services of the Duke of Angouleme. Bill respecting Seditious Cries. Temporary Erection of Prevotal Tribunals, for the sake of summary procedure against Persons guilty of Seditious Practices. Trial of Count Lavalette. Account of his preceding Life—His Behaviour on the Morning of the 20th of March—His Condemnation and Appeal—He effects his Escape from Prison on the Night previous to the Day appointed for his Execution, disguised in his Wife's Clothes. He is assisted in his ulterior Escape by three English Gentlemen, Sir Robert Wilson, Captain Hutcheson, and Mr Bruce. Detection of this, and Trial and Condemnation of his Deliverers. Notice taken of this Transaction by the Prince Regent of England. Reflections, - - 89

CHAP. X.

Debates on the Law of Amnesty. Necessity for a Law of this kind. Projet of M. de la Bourdonnaye. Royal Projet. Amendments proposed in the Chamber of Deputies respecting the Regicides. Speech of M. Betizy. The Bill is carried, with the Amendments, in both Houses, by a great majority. Reflections. Celebration of the Anniversary of the Death of Louis XVI. Last Letter of Marie Antoinette is read to the Chambers. Speech of M. de Chateaubriand delivered upon this Occasion, - - - - - - 102

CHAP. XI.

Debates concerning the Law of Election. Formation of the present Chamber of Deputies. Misrepresentations of its Character. Increasing Coldness of the Majority towards the Ministry. Causes of this. Disturbances and Seditious Movements at Tarascon—at Lyons—in the Neighbourhood of Grenoble—and in Paris itself. Frustration of all these Plots. Declaration of the Principles of the Majority of the Chambers of Deputies. Prorogation of the Chambers—their sudden Dissolution. Character of the Persons returned to serve in the Lower Chamber. The Viscount Chateaubriand is suspended from his functions as a Peer. Shipwreck of the Medusa frigate. Affairs of Germany—and of Spain, - 112

CHAP. XII.

PAGE.

Review of the Affairs of Spanish America. Origin of the present Commotions in these Countries. Oppressive Manner in which they were governed by Spain. Their willingness to continue attached to Spain, provided freedom of Commerce, and a share in their own Governments should be allowed them. Impolitic Conduct of the Temporary Government of Spain. Commencement of Hostilities. Declarations of Independence. History of the War in Venezuela. Atrocious System of Warfare adopted by both Parties. Toro. Monteverde. Bolivar and MacGregor. History of the War in New Grenada. Present State of that Country under the Royalist General Morillo. Affairs of Buenos-Ayres. Emancipation of Chili. Insurrection in Mexico under the Priests Hidalgo and Morelos. Mexico is in a great measure tranquillized by the judicious Conduct of the present Viceroy, Apodaça. Reflections on the Nature of the War, and its probable issue, - - - - - - - 127

CHAP. XIII.

West Indies. Disturbances in Jamaica and Barbadoes. Different Representations given of the Causes of these tumults in the British Parliament. Mr Wilberforce's Motion concerning a Slave Registry Bill—abandoned for the present. East Indies. Second Campaign in Nepaul. Battle of Muckwampore. Capture of Hurryhurpore. Peace concluded. Cessions to the British. Proceedings in Cutch. Disturbances at Barreilly. Inroad of the Pindarees. Java is delivered up to the Dutch, - - - - - - - 145

Chronicle, containing Brief Accounts of the various Public Occurrences of the Year, - - - - - - - i—cii
Appendix I.—State Papers, - - - - - - cv
——— II.—Gazettes, - - - - - - - clxvii
Public Acts of the Year, - - - - - - clxxvii
List of Patents, - - - - - - cxcvi
Public Accounts of Great Britain and Ireland, - - - cxcix

ESSAYS.

On the Present State of Education in Scotland, 1819, - - - ccxv
French Biography.
Duc de Fitz-James, - - - - ccxlix
Vicomte de Chateaubriand, - - - - cclii
M. Pasquier, - - - - - cclix
Duc de Richelieu, - - - - - cclx
Comte de Vaublanc, - - - - - cclxiii
M. Lainé, - - - - - cclxvi
M. le Baron Louis, - - - - cclxxi
Duc de La Rochefoucauld, - - - cclxxii
Le Duc Etienne de Damas-Crux, - - - cclxxv
Count Charles de Damas, - - - - cclxxvi
Count Roger de Damas, - - - - cclxxvii
Baron Maxence de Damas, - - - cclxxviii
Count Philip de Montesquiou-Fezenzac, - - cclxxix
The Abbé de Montesquiou-Fezenzac, - - - cclxxx
Count de Choiseul-Gouffier, - - - - cclxxxiii
Duc de Choiseul-Stainville, - - - cclxxxv
Anthony-Cæsar-Felix Duc de Choiseul-Praslin, - - cclxxxvi
The Baron de Vitrolles, - - - - cclxxxviii
Mademoiselle d'Orleans, - - - - ccxc

PAGE.

Two Historical Pieces connected with the American War of Independence.
Conspiracy of Arnold and Sir Henry Clinton, against the United States, and against General Washington, translated from the French of Count Barbé Marbois, - - - - - ccxcii
Conspiracy of Arnold, 1780, - - - - - ccci
An Account of the Operations of the French Army in the United States of America, during the War of their Independence; translated from the French of the Memoirs of Marshal Count de Rochambeau, - - - ccexl
The Discarded Prodigal; or, a Cure for Coquettes. A Tale, - - - ccclxii
Account of a Pedestrian Excursion from Geneva to the Valley of Chamounix, and of a Visit to the Higher Regions of the Mer de Glace, - ccclxxix
Account of a Disputation between a Christian Monk, and three Learned Mohammedans, on the Subject of Religion, translated from the Arabic, - - ccccv
View of the Progress and Present State of the Arts of Design in Britain, ccccxliv
Price of Stocks for each Month in the Year, - - - - ccccxciv

POETRY.

The Noble Moringer, an Ancient Ballad, translated from the German, ccccxcv
The Grave of Crazy Jane, from the MS. of the late John Finlay, Author of Wallace, &c. - - - - - ccccci
The Pale Cheek of Love, from the MS. of the late John Finlay, - cccccii
The Death of the King Juan of Castile, and Don Raymon of Butrago, from the Old Spanish, - - - - - - ccccciii

Letter from Captain Maitland, R. N. - - - ccccciv
The London General Bill of Mortality, - - - ccccevi
Lists of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, - - - ccccevii
List of Promotions, - - - - - ccccexxiv
New Publications, - - - - - ccccexxi
Index, - - - - - -